Planet 51 (2017) Blu-ray Planet 51 is a film by Dutch director Jelle Laanenberg. It is the first feature film in a post-apocalyptic trilogy. It was released on 13 October 2009 in the Netherlands. There is no known release date in other countries. The film stars Geert Wilders, Loona Hardy, and Anne van Walde in the main roles. The script is written by Laanenberg. The action starts in 1950s New York and moves to a remote planet. It then follows the survivors of a nuclear holocaust as they struggle to survive. The film premiered on 13 October 2009 in the Netherlands. The film was well received and was nominated for the Golden Calfs for Best Director (Jelle Laanenberg) and the Audience Award in the Dutch Film Festival. Laanenberg has said that the trilogy could make a trilogy of films in the style of Alien. In the Netherlands, the box office managed to beat the previous record for a Dutch film after only four days of sales. The film broke a record in the Netherlands for the first time in the history of Dutch film. It was also the best-selling Dutch film of 2009. It is the first feature film in a post-apocalyptic trilogy. The first film of the trilogy was released in 2010, and is titled North Sea. The trilogy was nominated for the Golden Calf Awards for Best Picture, Director and Actor in 2010. The other nominations were for Best Supporting Actress for Loona Hardy and Best Supporting Actor for Femke Heemskerk. It was also the best-selling Dutch film of 2010. The theme of the film is the transition from an old world to a new world, which is full of danger. The difference between our world and the world of the film is that our world was far more advanced and developed when it collapsed. The people of Earth could build spaceships, send people to space and they were able to live together in harmony, in the new world of the film, the people have to find their way of survival. There was a lot of tension and conflict in the film because there were too many people to feed and they had to make a decision about how to survive. The film is very dark, showing the consequences
